

Join the Movement: Aspiring Towards Zero Suicide in Colorado

May 18-19, 2017

Lowry Conference Center, 1061 Akron Way, Denver, CO 80230

Register now for the 2017 Bridging the Divide: Suicide Awareness and Prevention Summit on May 18-19, 2017 at the Lowry Conference Center in Denver, where we will explore the theme Join the Movement: Aspiring Towards Zero Suicide in Colorado. This statewide conference, hosted by the Suicide Prevention Coalition of Colorado (SPCC), will showcase the social justice movement and best practices for everyone to get involved in suicide prevention.

Keynote Speakers

Leah Harris, M.A. Peer Specialist NASMHPD	Richard McKeon, PhD, M.P.H. SAMHSA	Ursula Whiteside, PhD NowMattersNow.org	John Coppedge Lieutenant Denver Police Department
“How I Went From Wanting to Die to Loving Life: A Resilience Journey”	Aspiring Toward Zero Suicide: Implementing Comprehensive Suicide Prevention	“What Does Lived Experience Have to do with Suicide Prevention”	“Peer Support & Suicide Prevention in the Workplace & Law Enforcement”

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

This program is approved for 4 hours of continuing education credits. The University of Denver, Graduate School of Psychology (GSPP) is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. GSPP maintains responsibility for this program and its content.

Please check our web site at www.suicidpreventioncolorado.org for more detailed information including: current preconference workshop offerings, complete agenda listings, registration and scholarship information. Note: SPCC members receive a $15 discount from the non-member rate. Questions/concerns, please contact us at btd@suicidpreventioncolorado.org. We hope to see you at Lowry Conference Center on May 18-19!